

Propempo Church Missions Profile

	FOUNDATIONS		LEADERSHIP			PERSONAL INVOLVEMENT				ADVANCED
	Biblical Foundations	Local Outreach	Congregational Education	Church Leaders	Missions Team	Individual Participation	Prayer	Giving	Short Term Missions	Missionary Care	Missions Strategy	Missionary Training
“Missions is a ...” Possibility We hope to get involved in missions. Our church COULD ...	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church is open to teaching on the Biblical basis of missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church desires to get involved in or support outreach beyond our local church ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our congregation is interested in learning more about missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church leaders would like to see our church support a missionary or do some missions activities.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has people interested in starting a missions team.	<input type="checkbox"/> Some people in our church are interested in getting involved with missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Some people in our church pray for missionaries and cross-cultural ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church may give occasional one-time gifts to missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Some may be interested in going on a short-term missions trip.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church would be open to a caring involvement relationship with a missionary.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church gets involved when and where opportunities may come along.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church is open to potential missionaries receiving appropriate training.
Project We have a few missions interests. Our church OCCASIONALLY ...	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church sometimes has meetings that communicate the Biblical basis of Missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has done local evangelism and/or compassion ministries in our community.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our congregation has some awareness of missions through the projects we do.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church leaders occasionally promote cross-cultural missions ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has an individual or team that occasionally leads a missions project.	<input type="checkbox"/> Individuals from our church occasionally get involved in a missions trip or project.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church leaders occasionally share missions prayer need.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church raises money for specific cross-cultural evangelism and/or outreach projects each year.	<input type="checkbox"/> People from our church occasionally go on mission trips, usually not organized by our own church.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church helps missionaries on a special case-by-case basis.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church looks for a specific missions project or goal to adopt and complete each year.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church personally encourages anyone who pursues missions as a vocation.
Program Missions is readily visible in our church life. Our church REGULARLY ...	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has an annual emphasis that communicates the Biblical basis missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church people participate in several local outreach-oriented ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Missions is taught from the pulpit, in the classroom, and in small groups on special occasions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church leaders ensure our ongoing missions program has people to lead and promote it.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has a designated missions leadership team (or committee, board, etc.) that meets regularly.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church enlists individuals to assist in some missions emphasis or event annually or quarterly.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has a means for keeping missions and missionary prayer needs before the entire congregation.	<input type="checkbox"/> At least 10% of the church's total giving supports outreach outside of our church.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church does some pre-field training for church-sponsored trips each year.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church proactively seeks to discover and meet certain missionary needs.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church develops annual goals and plans for missions involvement and growth.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church publicly recognizes and encourages those who feel called to missions and prays for God's direction in their lives.
Priority Missions is very important to our church. Our church GIVES PRIORITY TO ...	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church frequently communicates the Biblical basis for missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church trains and deploys individuals in outreach ministries in our community and beyond.	<input type="checkbox"/> Missions is taught periodically through multiple venues to all age groups.	<input type="checkbox"/> The pastor and church leaders regularly give visibility to missions in platform time, illustrations, and prayer.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church missions team operates faithfully, strategically, and effectively in carrying out the missions ministry.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church regularly promotes multiple opportunities for personal involvement in supporting and doing missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church provides prayer requests for missions from the pulpit and by other means to our people on a weekly basis.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has annual goals for missions giving and gives at least 15% of total church income to missions ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church missions teams effectively assist field ministries, expose the congregation to missions, and disciple the participants.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church builds strong supportive relationships with the missionaries with whom we are especially connected.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church has clear priorities and ambitious goals and plans for missions ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church recognizes and takes an active role in assisting and guiding those who are interested in a missions career.
Purpose Missions is an essential reason for our church's existence. Our church FOCUSES ON ...	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church, almost every week in some way, communicates that God's glory proclaimed to all nations is a central purpose of the church.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church intentionally and consistently equips and deploys individuals in local cross-cultural outreach ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> Missions is taught regularly and faithfully through multiple venues to all age groups.	<input type="checkbox"/> The leaders of every church ministry are personally involved and have ministry goals that contribute to fulfilling the Great Commission.	<input type="checkbox"/> The church missions leadership team also encourages all the ministries of the church to incorporate a world missions dimension into their ministries.	<input type="checkbox"/> The entire congregation is frequently urged to get personally involved in missions as a normal part of their Christian life and responsibility.	<input type="checkbox"/> Prayer for missions – specific missionaries and people groups and world situations - is a normal, weekly part of the spiritual life of our congregation.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church gives at least 25% of all non-building fund giving to missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church is seeing increased missions prayer, giving and involvement resulting from our missions trips.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church actively shepherds, resources, and assists each of our missionaries beyond routine financial needs.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church is committed to specific field-based results and mobilization of resources to achieve them.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church encourages members to consider missions and maintains a regular program to track and assist the training of missionaries from our congregation.
Passion Missions is integrated in the life of the whole church. Our church makes MOST IMPORTANT ...	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church actively seeks to help each individual study and understand God's heart for the nations from Scripture.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church proactively trains and deploys all members in local ministries of all kinds. This is an expectation for every member.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church's commitment to the world is evident every week in multiple ways, especially through our leaders.	<input type="checkbox"/> Fulfilling the Great Commission guides planning, hiring, budgeting, and celebrating for the leadership of every church ministry.	<input type="checkbox"/> The church missions leadership team also assists church leaders and ministries to carry out a productive role in the Great Commission.	<input type="checkbox"/> The majority of our congregation has a personal and active role in missions.	<input type="checkbox"/> Every ministry of the church prays for specific missions efforts and every individual is expected to pray for God's missionary work in the world.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church gives 33% or more of all general income to missions plus at least 10% of building or other capital fund giving.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church is seeing an increased number of mission mobilizers, candidates, and missionaries resulting from our mission trips.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church treats our missionaries with as much interest, assistance, and care as our local staff. We are committed to them and their goals.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our entire congregation is fully committed and engaged in pursuing specific, strategic, long-term results on the field.	<input type="checkbox"/> Our church actively challenges members to consider a missions career and requires church-based training for our own missionary candidates.

